

BRYN MAWR HOUND SHOW 2004 RESULTS

Founded in 1914, the Bryn Mawr Hound Show marked its 90th anniversary this year. The Friday evening opening dinner, featuring an exciting horn blowing competition with 14 entrants, was held under fair skies. The show itself, however, held on Saturday June 5, was not so fortunate. Steady and sometimes heavy rains, along with cool temperatures, persisted all day. The rain did not dampen the spirits of our 40 exhibiting packs or their 500 entries, but it did lead to a rare waiver of Hunt Livery requirements in the pack classes.

Both the quantity and quality of this year's entries were excellent, with greatly improved participation in the English ring. The social events were again very well attended, with Joseph B. Wiley, Jr., MBH, of the Tewksbury Foot Bassets being honored as the recipient of the Julian Marshall Award at Saturday's luncheon.

The date of next year's Show, again to be held on the grounds of the Radnor Hunt, will be Saturday, June 4, 2005.
